

This is “Dedications”, article 3 from the book Modern Management of Small Businesses \(index.html\) (v. 1.0).

This book is licensed under a Creative Commons by-nc-sa 3.0 \(http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/3.0/\) license. See the license for more details, but that basically means you can share this book as long as you credit the author (but see below), don't make money from it, and do make it available to everyone else under the same terms.

This content was accessible as of December 29, 2012, and it was downloaded then by Andy Schmitz \(http://lardbucket.org\) in an effort to preserve the availability of this book.

Normally, the author and publisher would be credited here. However, the publisher has asked for the customary Creative Commons attribution to the original publisher, authors, title, and book URI to be removed. Additionally, per the publisher's request, their name has been removed in some passages. More information is available on this project's attribution page \(http://2012books.lardbucket.org/attribution.html?utm_source=header\).

For more information on the source of this book, or why it is available for free, please see the project's home page \(http://2012books.lardbucket.org/\). You can browse or download additional books there.

Dedications

David T. Cadden

To my grandmother, Helen Lane, whose love taught me what it means to be a real human being.

To my mother, Dorothy. I wouldn't be who I am or where I am without her constant support and love.

To my wife, Sandy, whose passion was the driving force behind this book and whose love and support made sure it would be completed.

To my daughter, Helena, who taught me more about learning than all my years in the classroom.

Sandra L. Lueder

To my Dad, a twice-entrepreneur, who instilled in me the love of small business and the importance of integrity in everything I do.

To my Mom, always the soldier in support of my Dad's entrepreneurial ventures. It wasn't easy. She was amazing!

To my husband, David, whose shared passion for small business helped to make this book a reality. This book is our dream.

To Helena, our beautiful daughter, who is very entrepreneurial in her own right. May she realize her dreams.